

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER - PHARMACY NETWORK

We're looking for a talented and motivated sales representative to join the team at our St Leonards office.

This role will see you work across our growing Pharmacy in-store media network.

The network is fast becoming the largest in-store media offering in the pharmaceutical industry.

Reporting to the General Manager of Sales, your focus will be to develop new and existing client relationships via media agencies and Pharmaceutical clients with strong delivery against monthly revenue targets. We're looking for someone with approximately five years' sales experience, able to demonstrate proven sales excellence preferably in pharmaceutical or media industry sales.

The successful candidate will demonstrate initiative and be capable of working independently.

We're offering a competitive salary package and a supportive workplace culture.
